Day 5: Ha Noi – Da Nang – Hoian

After having breakfast, we shall have a half-day city tour of Hanoi, including visits to the Ho Chi Minh Complex, which includes the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum, the Ho Chi Minh House on Stilts, the Presidential Palace, and the One Pillar Pagoda.

Subsequently, we proceed to visit the famous Literature Temple, Vietnam's earliest university, founded in the 16th century.

One Pillar Pagoda

Lunch is served at a neighbouring restaurant before our return to the hotel to check out.

We are taken to the airport early in the afternoon for our afternoon flight to Da Nang. When we reach Da Nang, our tour guide and vehicle will greet visitors and transport you to a hotel in Hoi An for check-in before enjoying an evening meal.

Relax and spend nighttime in Hoi An.

Day 6: Discover Hoi An Ancient Town

After having breakfast, we shall go on a walking tour of discovering the old town of Hoi An. First, we visit Thang Loi Handicraft Workshop on Phan Chu Trinh Street to enjoy all of Hoi An's traditional handicrafts: mat weaving, wood carving, table cloth manufacturing, silk worm rearing, lantern making, spinning and weaving, and embroidered image. Since Hoi An became a renowned tourist destination, these handicrafts have made a significant contribution to raising the living standards of the locals.

Then, we stroll to the ancient town of Hoi An. We will begin our trek in a little lane between Phan Chu Trinh Street and Nguyen Thi Minh Khai Street. This is a typical Hoi An antique street that can offer you the excellent ambience of the ancient town. Also, we visit the Japanese Cover Bridge, Hoi An's icon. Following that, we go to Tan Ky, the most famous and authentic historic home in town, then go to the town market by walking down Nguyen Thai Hoc, Hoi An's old street, visit the Hoi An local market and the Phuc Kien Congressional Assembly Hall, which serves as a gathering place for the Chinese community from Fukien province in China, as well as the worshipping temple to Thien Hau, the Goddess who protects people on the sea, which was once very important to Chinese merchants and fishermen. Then you are free to explore the town on your own or go shopping. Eat at a restaurant for lunch.

Hoi An ancient town

We leave in the afternoon for a cyclo excursion, which will then transport you to Cam Nam Village. The first stop will be for a picture opportunity of the Thu Bon River's activity and surroundings. The cyclo will next take you along the Thu Bon River bank, where you may stop for another picture opportunity with a panoramic view of Hoi An from the other bank. You will pedal down the riverbank and through Cam Nam's native communities. This is a tourist-free zone with extremely nice and welcoming locals. Through always-open doors, you can watch and observe their everyday activities as well as the interior of their house and their lives. The cyclo ride will terminate at a tiny green canal with water coconut palms. Taking a journey along the Thu Bon River on the boat, you may observe local everyday activities along the river, such as fishing, farming, and clam catching....

We then return to Hoi An around sunset for dinner.

Nighttime in Hoi An

Day 7: Hoi An – Tra Que Village – Flight to Ho Chi Minh City

We will begin our riding journey to Tra Que Village after breakfast at the hotel. We will pedal to a nearby farm in Tra Que village (car available upon request). After a brief trip around the vegetable garden, you may assist the farmers in preparing the soil and fertilizing it with seaweed from the nearby lake. Other gardening tasks include raking the ground, seeding, watering, vegetable harvesting, and many others. We'll take a little break after all of these activities before making lunch with a local family.

Tra Que vegetable village-Hoi An

Our lunch will include a variety of regional specialties such as 'Tam Huu' spring rolls and Banh Xeo, a traditional Vietnamese pancake. On certain dinners, you may join the chef in the kitchen. We'll enjoy a customary Vietnamese postprandial siesta after your morning excursions and lunch before learning how to pick and wrap the veggies.

You then return to the hotel, check out, and are taken to the Da Nang airport for a trip to Saigon – Ho Chi Minh City in the afternoon.

You will be picked up at the airport in Saigon and transferred to the hotel for check-in. Relax and enjoy your own evening meal. Hotel in HCM City for the night
