

Vietnam Best Beaches Tour in 14 Days

Overview

There is nearly 3000 km of beautiful beaches in Vietnam. Our trip to Vietnam Beach offers destinations at some of the country's most popular beaches, as well as the country's top attractions. Hanoi and Ha Long Bay, to the north, are popular starting points for tours. Mui Ne Beach and Phu Quoc Island are two of the most popular destinations on the tour, including a stop in Saigon and the Cu Chi tunnels. Hanoi - is a dreamy city that has made many people fall in love. Known for having thirty-six streets, each of which is like a village and has its own one-of-the-kind characteristics. Coming to Hanoi, we can not miss the places like Bat Trang pottery village, the Temple of Literature, the President Ho Chi Minh mausoleum, One Pillar Pagoda, and the Old Quarter. They are attached to the history and growth of Hanoi and Vietnam. Let's come to see and explore the beauty as well as the traditional cuisine here. Cu Chi tunnels also called the "Iron Triangle" or "Iron Land" is a historic attraction you can not miss.

Day 3: Hanoi – Halong Bay

08:00: Departure Hanoi

10:00: Stop at Sao Do/ Hai Duong – Break Stop

12:00: Arrive at the Bhaya Group Cruise Center at Tuan Chau International Passenger Port.

12:45: Get on board Bhaya Cruises for your cruise. Have a drink while our Cruise Manager goes over the day's plans and safety rules.

13:00: Let's start the trip off with a tasty lunch as the boat sails to the southwest of Halong Bay.

15:00: Find out about the mysterious Tien Ong Cave, which is not only a beautiful place but also a place where people have found artifacts. The cave is one of the best in Halong Bay. It is 1,000 m2 and has beautiful stalactites and stalagmites.

17:00: Happy Hour starts at the bar. "Buy one, get one for nothing." Use the chance to get more fun and tasty drinks.

17:30 Join the exciting "Master-Chef Competition" and a demonstration of how to carve fruit. You can also learn how to make authentic Vietnamese food and try it out for yourself. Surprise gifts would be given to the winner or Master Chef of Bhaya Cruise. As the boat anchors for the night, you can also watch the sun go down over the beautiful Halong Bay.

19:00: Have a set-menu dinner on board while your Cruise Manager tells you what's going to happen the next day.

21.00 Go back to your cabin or fish for squid with our staff. On board for the night.

Day 4: Halong Bay – Hanoi – Fly to Saigon

6:15: Start your day with a free lesson in Tai Chi on the sundeck, where tea and coffee are also served. Slowly move your body and mind with Tai Chi and watch the sun rise over the bay.

At 7:00, a light breakfast is served. The boat pulls up its anchor so it can sail to the floating village of Cua Van.

7:45: Take your time to see the village, which huffingtonpost.com says is one of the 11 most beautiful small towns in the world. You can go out on the water in a kayak or a traditional rowing boat to see what's going on in the area.

Halong Bay

9:00: Go back to your boat and take it easy. Have a good time at brunch before you leave.

10:45: Arrive at Tuan Chau International Passenger Port.

Drive back to the airport in Hanoi so you can catch an afternoon flight to Saigon. When you arrive in Saigon, you'll be met and taken to your hotel to check in. Stay in a hotel in Saigon for the night.

Day 5: Saigon City tour – Cu Chi Tunnel – Saigon

At 8:30, we'll be picked up at the hotel's Reception Hall and taken to the best parts of Vietnam's largest city. The first stop is the Reunification Palace, which is where the Vietnam Liberation Army won the war against the U.S. in 1975. The second place is the Museum of War Relics. This is a place where you can see a lot of artifacts, photos, and pictures that show how the United States did bad things during war. Before going to the restaurant for lunch, we will visit the Notre Dame Cathedral, the Old Post Office, and the Ben Thanh market.

Saigon Post Office

At 14:00, we leave Saigon for the Cu Chi tunnels, also called the "Iron Triangle" or "Iron Land." On the way there, we'll pass through a nice area with rubber plantations and rice paddies. Before we go into the tunnels, we'll watch a short video about how they were built. Then we'll go through the maze of tunnels, some of which have been compared to tourists can get through. There are also several mantraps, the remains of an American tank, and many bomb craters made by 500-pound bombs dropped by B52 bombers.

Around 18:00, we'll be back at the hotel. Today, you get breakfast and lunch. Stay in a hotel in Saigon for the night.

Optional activities in the evening in Ho Chi Minh City:
